Belavatha Mystery Fire

Hazardous soil
to be removed from accident site

Mysuru, June 9 (RK&BCT)- The Karnataka State Pollution Control Board (KSPCB) has decided to shift the hazardous material and soil that has been dumped on a private land at Shyadanahalli near Belavatha in the outskirts of the city.

It may be recalled that 14-year-old Harshal was killed and his friend Manoj sustained severe burns after they accidentally stepped on the hot soil in this area in April.

Tasked with ascertaining the cause of fire, the KSPCB has now decided to cleanse this area by clearing the hazardous soil. The process will involve excavation using heavy machinery where the land will be cleared of all harmful chemicals.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Lingaraju, Senior Environment Officer, KSPCB Mysuru Division, said "Due to rain since last month, the temperature of the land and soil in the vicinity of the accident which was 110 degrees Centigrade has now come down drastically. We will excavate the land, clear hazardous chemicals and only after that we will declare the area safe."

Mysore Varsity to be renamed after Nalwadi

Mysuru, June 9 (MTY&KS) - The century-old University of Mysore (UoM) will soon be renamed as 'Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar Mysore University,' said UoM Acting Vice-Chancellor Prof. Dayananda Mane, during Sri Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar birth anniversary celebrations, organised by the University at Crawford Hall here this morning.

Prof. Mane was replying to the suggestion of Dr. C.S. Dwarkanath, Advocate of Karnataka High Court, who was the chief guest at the celebrations.

Dr. Dwarkanath, in his inaugural address, had suggested that it would be good if University of Mysore was renamed after its founder Sri Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar.

Reacting to this suggestion, Prof. Mane said that a decision in this regard would be taken at the Syndicate meeting to be held on June 22 and added that a proposal would also be sent to the State Government.

City's cock a snook at its civic body

Having annexed the distinction as the country's cleanest city for two consecutive years, unarguably by default, the civic body of Mysuru, after sliding to fifth place in the current ranking of cities across the land for cleanliness, its functionaries must have realised that maintaining cleanliness and securing top spot in the rankings is not a one-shot game. Anybody's backyard or front-yard may be clean on a given day or at a given time during a particular day but host litter and filth the following day or at a later hour of the day. That is exactly what the citizens of Mysuru, barring its cleanliness-savvy residents, have done for their living spaces, bringing in its wake the loss of top rank to the city for keeping it tidy. Now, both the one million plus residents of Mysuru and the 65-strong Corporators of its Municipal Corporation have no option other than working together in preventing the city sliding further and self-earn the badge of garbage city.

Voices were heard after the city was declared as the country's cleanest for the first time two years ago that the Central team of judges (evaluators) were in reality noseled by the local authorities on a tour of the city's central district with its broad avenues and boulevards as well as some glitz spots, shielding the team from observing garbage dumps, overflowing drains and litter everywhere.

Citizens of Mysuru formally learnt (recently) for the first time the disdainful ways of the Corporators overreaching the various privileges such as official transport for Chairpersons of different Committees, mobile telephones at public cost and whatever. While not even appearing to be discharging their duties well-marked for their post as elected representatives of the citizens at the rate of nearly each Corporator representing between 15 to 20 thousand residents of the city. As for the style of functioning of the different departments of the civic body, the less said the better about its staff assigned with the engineering tasks, particularly roads as well as roadsides and drainage system, given their deplorable state being publicised graphically in this daily on a daily basis, with the authorities preferring to be brazenly insensitive to the woes of citizens.

Volumes can be written about the civic body's inspectors, barring a small number in that category, who are nowhere to be seen. Somebody must drill into their ears that are the eyes and ears of the Corporation, with public perception of the flock, however, being that they are happy to be blind and also deaf. The latest example is the unstoppable menace of ugly-looking posters pasted on all available spaces in spite of prohibitory law prescribing penalties and punishment to the offenders. The citizens are happily playing their cock a snook game at the authorities.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

MANN KI BAAT: If there is one thing that all the 3 year report cards issued to this government agree on, is that Narendra Modi is an extremely popular leader, who generates a level of trust and respect that borders on superstition. His actions are presumed to come from a place of sincerity. In a time when faith in politicians is at an all time low, what explains his extraordinary ability to evoke this kind of presumptive trust? He strikes a deep chord with his aura of clarity and strength, speaks simultaneously to anxieties and aspirations, communicates using emotionally resonant metaphors and knows the power of enigmatic silence. — Santosh Desai in The Times of India.

"Relaxation Cafe"

Seoul: People usually visit cafes for a dose of energy-boosting caffeine to alleviate tiredness and keep themselves from falling asleep, but Mr. Healing, a popular cafe chain in South Korea actually encourages people to lie down, take a break, and even get some shut-eye.

Data from the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development shows that many Koreans suffer from sleep deprivation as a result of overworking, so any opportunity to relax and even take a short nap is greatly appreciated. Mr. Healing is the perfect place to go for relaxation. The cafe offers its relaxing massage sessions in various intervals and modes, depending on how much time you have available and how you choose to spend it. The 20 minute session is priced at 4,000 Korean won ($3.5), the 30 minute massage costs 7,900 won ($7), and the 50 minute session is ($9), all of which also include a drink. After the relaxing session, you are taken back to the actual cafe to enjoy a coffee or one of the many other refreshing drinks on the menu.

World's largest inflatable pool toy

Sacramento: California AT&T and iHeartRadio teamed up to create and erect a massive, record-breaking inflatable pool toy in California.

The two companies oversaw the construction of "Sally the Swan" a 54-foot tall light blue inflatable swan that set a Guinness World Record for "Largest inflatable pool toy."

Guinness' regulations allowed for the massive pool toy to take any shape, but the companies agreed on the swan which also measures about 70 feet long and 50 feet wide. Sally was placed on display for three days at the companies' annual summer pool party at Hermosa Beach.

After its appearance in California the giant inflatable swan was shipped across the country to Miami, Fla. to be put on display at the iHeartSummer 2017 Weekend.Paramount Pictures UK completed a similar feat by constructing a record-setting inflatable beach ball measuring 66 feet in diameter for the London premier of Baywatch.

VOICE OF THE READER

School Children & Safety

Sir,

Children are back to school with new vigour and joy. Parents are happy with renewed excitement and at the same time, are also worried about the safety of their kids while travelling to and from the school as well as during their stay at school. Most of the year, children spend their time more at school than anywhere else. So, their security must receive maximum attention from everybody concerned.

TRANSPORTATION: Children are being ferried every day by hundreds of vans, buses, autos and two-wheelers. Not all of them are doing the job very responsibly. Supreme Court has clearly laid certain guidelines in this regard. Many schools have implemented them with regard to the vehicles owned by them. But there are problems with respect to autos. Children are loaded like potato sacks and their bags hung dangerously outside.

The auto uncle manages to accommodate two or three kids next to his (driver) seat. There is absolutely no protection to these kids. Under emergency the driver is hardly in a position to save any of them with the bags and the children crowding him. In many cases more than twelve children can be seen travelling to their schools. Less said the better about other road users like office-goers, college students, with their scant regard to rules of the road. Everybody is in a hurry.

A lot of talk is done about autos to be painted yellow, with the legend "SCHOOL CHILDREN" to be boldly written and a yellow flag to be carried to warn other vehicle drivers but nothing is done.

PARENTS: I discussed this issue with some of the parents and asked why they ignore the safety of their own children. They said that since both of them go to work before the child leaves for school they are not free to escort the child to where the school bus can pick up the child. They prefer the auto (bus is expensive) as he picks up the child at the doorstep and drops back, with the neighbour or somebody else (a maid) in charge. I have also talked to the auto drivers. They very honestly say that it is their livelihood. They cannot make more trips in the limited time. Whom do we blame?

IAS officer Anurag Tiwari's mysterious death

Govt. should clear Tiwari family's doubts: BJP stages dharna in Assembly

Anurag Tiwari

Bengaluru, June 9 (KMS& NNN)- The BJP staged a dharna in the Assembly yesterday demanding that the Government clear the doubts raised by IAS officer Anurag Tiwari's family regarding his mysterious death.

As soon as the Session began, the Opposition Leader Jagadish Shettar and a few others raised the issue and demanded that the death of Tiwari be allowed to be discussed under Rule 69.

However, Law Minister T.B. Jayachandra who raised an objection, said that Tiwari had died in Uttar Pradesh and hence the jurisdiction for investigation comes there. Even the Uttar Pradesh Government has handed over the investigation to CBI, hence, let it first complete the investigation, he added.

If it comes to light that someone is behind his death, then stringent action will be taken against such persons. However, right now the report states that Tiwari had died due to heart attack, said Jayachandra.

Jagadish Shettar

He questioned the Opposition how under Rule 69 it could be taken up for debate. Moreover, is there a bigger investigation agency than the CBI, he asked.

However, the Opposition demanded that the issue had to be debated as there were several doubts related to his death.

There are talks doing the rounds that he was killed because he was trying to unearth scam in the Food Department and putting a stop to it.

In the light of these doubts, the investigation should be carried out, they said. But when Council Chairman K.B. Koliwad did not allow for discussion under Rule 69, the BJP members protested and entered the Well of the House. They started shouting loudly demanding for a discussion on the subject. This led to war of words between the ruling party members and the Opposition.

At this stage, when Koliwad allowed them to discuss, the members returned to their seats. Shettar said that there are lots of doubts regarding the mysterious death of Anurag Tiwari. When his relatives came to discuss with the Chief Minister, he ignored them, charged Shettar.

The CM should invite the family members immediately and listen to them as they have lots of issues and doubts regarding his death. If this is not done, there will be a feeling that the Government is trying to hide something, he complained.

Koliwad on listening to the demands of the Opposition assured them that he would get the Chief Minister to respond appropriately at the right time.

Absence of Ministers, officials: BJP, JD(S) take Govt. to task

Bengaluru, June 9 (KMS &NNN)- The BJP and JD(S) members took the Government to task regarding the absence of the Ministers and the officials when serious discussions were taking place with respect to their departments.

BJP members Govind Karjol, Basavaraj Bommai, Lakshman Savadi, JD(S) members K. M. Shivalinge Gowda and others took serious objection when they saw the visible absence of the Ministers and the officials.

When Rural Development Minister H.K. Patil said that he and a few other Ministers were present and to continue with the discussion, there was heated exchange of words between the ruling and Opposition members.

Lakshman Savadi in a raised voice said, "The officials can be seen in the clubs and chatting. If you want, go and see. You will find them there."

At this juncture when Law Minister T.B. Jayachandra said that there were officials in the Assembly who could record the discussion, Savadi flared up and asked the Minister not to support the officials.

Facilities at Government Hospitals within 45 days, says Health Minister

Bengaluru, June 9 (KMS&BCT)- Health Minister K. R. Ramesh Kumar on Thursday told the Legislative Assembly that immediate measures will be taken to ensure all facilities that are offered by private hospitals will also be made available at Government Hospitals and he has set himself a deadline of 45 days to achieve this.

Replying to Legislators Shivalingegowda, D. Nagarajaiah and U.B. Banakara, the Minister said that the intention of the government was to stop people flocking private hospitals, where patients are made to cough up huge money. "Facilities will be provided at all district and taluk hospitals for disease detection and cure. Blood banks, dialysis machines and X-ray machines, advanced ICUs, generic medicine outlets, CT scanning and MRI machines will be set up," he said.

The Minister said that 76 new ambulances would be pressed into service in the State this year and added that the govt. was aware that many vehicles of the Health Department are out of order. The process to purchase new vehicles is on, he said. On Trauma Centre, he said, "Our intention is to make at least one ambulance available for every 10 to 15 km. A Trauma Centre would be established near Kunigal as it is closer to a Highway."

FDA accused of misuse of Encumbrance Certificate

Mysuru, June 9 (RK & DM)- A First Division Assistant (FDA) at Hunsur Taluk office has been accused of cheating the Government by submitting two different Encumbrance Certificates of family members for availing benefits.

Puttarangaswamy, a resident of the city, in his complaint to the DC alleged that FDA Sanjeeva Murthy, had used the death Certificate of his mother Eramma who served at PKTB Sanatorium in city, to get a government job on compassionate grounds. But Sanjeev Murthy submitted a different Encumbrance Certificate to the Revenue Department, by concealing the one which he had used to secure a job, to obtain a site in 2014, the complainant said.

Puttarangaswamy has appealed the DC to dismiss Sanjeevamurthy from service for cheating the government to avail benefits on false grounds.

Expert team visits KRS Dam, oversees restoration works

Mysuru, June 9 (RK&BCT)- An expert team comprising a representative from the World Bank, Central Water Commission and State Planning Supervisory Committee visited the Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Dam on Wednesday for an inspection of the ongoing repair and restoration works.

The team was led by Edward Flint of the World Bank and it inspected the first phase of renovation taken up at KRS. The team had discussions with Cauvery Neeravari Nigam Limited officials on the second phase of works, which will begin shortly. Talacauvery, Bhagamandala bandh over eco-sensitive tag

Madikeri, June 9 - Normal life in the temple town of Bhagamandala and Talacauvery, the birthplace of River Cauvery, came to a grinding halt this morning following a bandh declared by residents and the public opposing the declaration of Talacauvery as eco-sensitive area.

The Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change issued a draft notification declaring Talacauvery sanctuary, near Bhagamandala and Brahmagiri in South Kodagu, as ecologically sensitive areas. The notification was issued on May 15 and the State government was given 60 days time to file objections. Though environmental organisations have welcomed the move, the villagers residing on the periphery of the forest are opposing it. The bandh that began at 6 am today will continue till evening and protesters said that they would intensify their stir tomorrow and the day after opposing the notification.

Villagers of Bhagamandala, Talacauvery, Tannimani, Cherangala, Ayyangeri, Sannapulikoti, Ballamavatti and Perooru participated in the bandh.

As the bandh began, the main entrance to Bhagamandala town was closed and vehicles were sent back. Several tourists who had come to visit Bhagamandala and Talacauvery had to return.

Tomorrow being a weekend, tourist flow to the places might be affected due to indefinite protests.

As per the notification, any commercial and mining activities in the ecologically sensitive area will be stopped.

Mining, quarry and crushing units, saw-mills, polluting industries, hydro electricity projects, dairy farming and poultry on large-scale cannot be taken up in the region.

Residents fear that the notification will hamper their day-to-day activities though they are not damaging the atmosphere.

Prices of petrol, diesel to change daily from June 16

Mysuru, June 9 (NNN)- The 'dynamic' daily pricing of fuel that had been introduced as a pilot project in a few cities in the country from May 1, will come into effect in the whole country from June 16. The consumers throughout the country will pay a different price for petrol and diesel every day, according to the State-owned oil companies.

The prices were revised daily in the pilot project, which was a success. Hence, it was decided to implement it all over the country. "Daily price revisions of petrol and diesel will make retail prices more reflective of the current market conditions, minimising volatility," said a statement from the State-owned oil companies.

The dynamic pricing has been introduced following the international pattern and to bring about transparency. At present prices of petrol and diesel are revised on 1st and 16th of every month based on the average international price of fuel in the preceding fortnight and currency exchange rate.

The pilot project was introduced in Udaipur, Jamshedpur, Puducherry, Chandigarh and Vishakapatnam from May 1.

It may be recalled that Star of Mysore had spoken to Ravi Prakash Baid, a petrol bunk dealer in Vishakapatnam on May 2, where the dynamic daily pricing had been introduced and he had said that he had two petrol bunks, one, inside the city and other on the National Highway. While the price of diesel had gone up by 44 paise and petrol by one paise in the whole of the country, in Vizag it had gone down by 9 paise for diesel and 90 paise for petrol.

There is also a move to publish the prices of petrol and diesel in newspapers, besides taking steps to establish an appropriate mechanism for conveying the prices to consumers on a daily basis.

S.K. Dinesh, Hon. President of Petroleum Dealers Association of Mysore, speaking to Star of Mysore, here this morning said, "In Mysuru city all the petrol bunks have been automated and the oil companies will effect the change which will automatically be recorded in the bunks. However, the issue is in the rural areas as none of the retail outlets there are automated. Besides, they do not have internet facilities and also one must understand they still are not tech savvy."

Shape of things to come

As of now, the price of petrol varies in just one-and-a-half kilometre area from bunk to bunk. Here is an example, if the HPCL bunk in Fountain Circle sells petrol at Rs. 71.50 per litre, in Reliance bunk it is sold at Rs. 71.60, in BPCL at Rs. 71.48 and IOCL at Rs. 71.42, he said.

The prices will keep widening depending on the competition. If HPCL reduces by Re. 1, BPCL could increase by Rs. 2. However, once the dynamic pricing comes into effect from June 16, it could vary by just few paisas, he said.

Is the consumer going to benefit at all? The answer sadly is in the negative as the taxes like entry tax on crude, refinery processing charges, VAT and excise remain the same.

Pramoda Devi moves HC on alienation of land

Bengaluru, June 9- Pramoda Devi Wadiyar, wife of late Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar, has approached the High Court seeking quashing of the lower court orders not to alienate the land adjacent to the Regency Theatre, Mysuru.

A sessions court in Bengaluru has passed an injunction order against Pramoda Devi asking her not to alienate the property. However, she has moved the High Court, saying Rohini R. Manohar, a resident of Basaveshwaranagar, Bengaluru, has forged documentation, stating she (Rohini) had entered into an agreement with her late husband in February 2013.

According to Rohini, she had paid a sum of Rs. one crore to late Wadiyar to buy the land adjacent to the Regency Theatre, that is situated near the Mysuru Zoo. She claimed that the I-T Department had granted permission to sell the property. Rohini wrote to Pramoda Devi in March 2014 about the agreement, the payment made and the remaining amount of Rs. 9 crore to be paid as part of the sale.

Pramoda Devi said the documents of the agreement and the signature of her husband had been fabricated and forged. Rohini approached the lower court, which granted an injunction order restricting Pramoda Devi from alienating the property.

A division bench comprising Justice H.G. Ramesh and Justice John Michael Cunha ordered emergent notice to Rohini and adjourned the hearing to July 3.

Pramoda Devi Wadiyar, reacting to the news appearing in a section of the media, told Star of Mysore, "It is not a valid agreement that was entered between my late husband and Rohini. It was an alleged agreement that was entered into much later. However, I cannot comment on the matter, as it is subjudice."

Mysore Varsity to be renamed after Nalwadi

Earlier, floral tributes were offered to the portrait of Nalwadi by the dignitaries to mark the celebrations. UoM Registrars D. Bharati and Prof. J. Somashekar were also present.

Pramod Devi Wadiyar on hearing about the suggestion to rename the University after her grand-uncle-in-law said that she was delighted to hear about renaming the University after the founder. "It would be a befitting tribute to the founder Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar, especially when the University celebrated the centenary recently," she said, speaking to Star of Mysore.

Hazardous soil to be removed from accident site

Meanwhile, the 10-member Technical Committee constituted by the KSPCB to probe the fire incident, is yet to submit its report. The committee is chaired by B.S. Jai Prakash, Vice President, Academy of Certified Hazardous Material Manager, India Chapter, Bangalore Institute of Technology, Bengaluru.

Reacting to reports in a section of media that the committee has submitted the report and has indicated that indiscriminate dumping of toxic waste by industries was the reason for fire, Lingaraju said that the committee will visit the site on June 11 (Sunday).

"The committee members will be arriving in Mysuru tomorrow evening and will visit the place on Sunday. The report is likely to be presented to the KSPCB early next week," he said.

Even Deputy Commissioner D. Randeep has clarified that the Karnataka State Pollution Control Board Technical Committee has not submitted any report to the District Administration as reported by a section of the media.

No dengue deaths in Mysuru, claims DHO

Mysuru, June 9 (RK&BCT)- There is no single death in Mysuru due to dengue since 2014, said District Health Officer Dr. B. Basavaraju. He was addressing reporters at a press conference in city this morning. "Since 2014, no single death has been reported due to dengue and people need not panic as we have taken measures to combat the disease," he said.

Providing statistics, he said that in 2013, there were 334 positive cases and 3 people died. In 2014, 66 cases were reported and 382 in 2015. In 2016, 582 dengue positive cases were reported and this year 71 cases have been reported and there were no deaths, he claimed.

Dr. Basavaraju said that the district administration, health department and the Mysuru City Corporation have taken enough measures to fight the disease. He said that a meeting with private hospitals was held yesterday. "We have asked them to stringently adhere to clinical procedures on dengue and other vector-borne diseases and warned them of action if they deviate from the protocol," he said.

"In the name of dengue, patients should not be forced to undergo pricey treatment and the maximum the hospitals and laboratories can charge is Rs. 500 and the same tests are conducted at government hospitals free of cost," he added.

He said that Enzyme-linked Immunosorbent Assay (ELISA) procedure was a must to diagnose dengue and it is done at the district laboratory which is fully equipped to conduct confirmatory tests on vector-borne diseases.

District Vector Borne Diseases Control Officer Dr. Chidambara and other doctors were present.

The District Laboratory of the Department of Health and Family Welfare will undertake tests of blood samples of suspected dengue cases. He said the tests are done free of cost and asked the public and private hospitals to make use of the service.

Hung Parliament

London, June 9 - British PM Theresa May-led Conservative Party lost the majority in the UK Parliament as Britons delivered a hung verdict.

With over 640 of the 650 seats counted, Tories had 312 seats and Labour had 260. The Scottish National Party has 34 and the Liberal Democrats 12. May, who will be forced to resign, would now need support from Northern Ireland Unionists, who have 10 seats, to touch the 326 majority-mark, to retain the post.

CHAMPIONS TROPHY

Gunathilaka, Mendis power Sri Lanka to a good win over India

London, June 9- Sri Lanka pulled off the biggest upset of the 2017 ICC Champions Trophy as they beat India by 7 wickets at the Oval yesterday. The result threw Group B wide open as now all four teams are on 2 points and the last two matches, (India vs South Africa and Pakistan vs Sri Lanka), will decide who goes through to the semi-finals.

India's batting unit put up 321 runs on the board despite captain Virat Kohli failing to open his account, after being put into bat.

Bhuvneshwar Kumar removed Niroshan Dickwella (7) early with some disciplined bowling.

But Gunathilaka batted with the flair of Sangakkara and the fearlessness of Jayasuriya, cutting and pulling the Indian pace bowlers with elan to take the fight back to Kohli and his men.

Gunathilaka brought up his half-century with a big six over mid-wicket and that was a signal to Team India that they had a fight on their hands.

Mendis then upped the ante by targeting Jadeja and brought up his half-century with a huge six off the left-arm spinner.

Pandya dropped Mendis of his own bowling and Rohit Sharma failed to take a difficult chance in the deep by Gunathilaka, made matters worse for the 'Men in Blue'. Gunathilaka flicked one towards backward square leg and tried to complete a double, but Umesh Yadav's accurate throw and Dhoni's quick glovework broke the 159-run stand. Gunathilaka departed for a career-best score of 76.

Bhuvneshwar Kumar ran Mendis out off his own bowling with the score on 196/3.

Perera and Mathews played calmly and kept the team in the chase by getting the crucial boundaries.

Kusal Perera with a hamstring injury retired hurt after scoring 47 runs in 44 deliveries with Sri Lanka still needing 51 runs off the last seven overs.

New man Asela Gunaratne hit a six off Umesh Yadav's 44th over and then two boundaries off Bhuvneshwar Kumar's 45th over to bring the equation. Gunaratne and Mathews got the job done with eight balls to spare.

Mathews batted with maturity to end up unbeaten on 52, while the maverick Gunaratne stayed unbeaten on 34 off just 21 deliveries.

Earlier, India posted a total of 321 runs on the board, with Rohit Sharma (78) and Shikhar Dhawan (125), stringing together a healthy 138-run partnership.

Virat Kohli failed to open his account and Yuvraj Singh scored 7 runs.

M.S. Dhoni along with Dhawan took the innings forward without taking too many risks. The Sri Lankan bowlers bowled some poor deliveries and Dhoni slammed 7 boundaries and 2 sixes to score 63 off 52 deliveries, before being dismissed in the last over. Kedar Jadhav's 25 of 13 deliveries saw India end up with 321 runs, with 103 runs scored in the last 10 overs.

Karnataka girls go down to Chhattisgarh

Noida, June 9- Chhattisgarh girls defeated Karnataka in a surprisingly one-sided game in the 68th Junior National Basketball Championship at Noida yesterday. Gulabsha Ali's 26 points and forward Megha Singh's 20 points led Chhattisgarh from the start. Chhattisgarh ended the game with 30 points to seal a 75-45 win.

The undefeated teams in girls' Group B squared off to decide the pool toppers today evening. Tamil Nadu and Maharashtra were evenly matched, until an explosion of offense in the third quarter pushed Tamil Nadu ahead. TN's Pushpa had a game-high 36 points, helping her team to a 91-78 win, finishing the league stages with a perfect record. TN forward Avanti (16 points) and point guard Nishanthi (13 points) also contributed.

Both the UP teams won their qualifying matches against Madhya Pradesh teams to decide their pre-quarterfinal opponent tomorrow. The UP girls have chosen to face Rajasthan in their pre-quarterfinal game, while the boys will play against Haryana.

Punjab boys Mandeep Singh (20 points) and Gurwinder Singh (18 points) stepped up to lead the charge for Punjab. Punjab scored a 68-45 win against defending champs Tamil Nadu.

The Rajasthan boys handed Chhattisgarh their fourth straight loss, knocking them out of the tournament. Chhattisgarh's Salim Ali fought hard with his 25 points, but he had little support. Rajasthan's Rajeev led all scorers with 28 points and helped to cement his team's place in the quarter-finals tomorrow where they will face Chandigarh.

The Punjab girls pulled off a close win against Rajasthan, who fell to a 71-69 defeat. Forward Rajandeep was on fire with 30 points in the game. She was ably supported by Punjab centre Aakarshan who put up 14 points. Despite Rajasthan's 31 points fourth quarter, Punjab held on to a slim lead to clinch a decisive victory, placing them in the quarter-finals tomorrow against defending champions Karnataka.

DC inspects K'halli Lake

Mysuru, June 9 (RKB&NNN)- Deputy Commissioner (DC) D. Randeep was on an inspection tour of Kukkarahalli Lake, here this morning braving rains, following a complaint from the members of Mysore Grahakara Parishat (MGP).

The MGP had complained that the inlets to the Lake had been blocked on eight sides thus depriving it of rainwater. The DC inspected all the inlets including the one from the Railway gate near Crawford Hall, behind Rangayana Canteen, Paduvarahalli side, KSOU and Manasagangothri Amphitheatre.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Randeep said, "It is true that all the inlets have been blocked and also there is encroachment. I will immediately ask the University authorities to clear the inlets and allow the direct flow of water into the Lake."

Regarding the Poornaiah canal from where the water was led into the Lake earlier, he said that efforts will be made to clear the obstruction near the bridge on the western side. The Sewage Treatment Plant has already been installed by the University, near the Lake adjacent to the land on southern side, he said.

University of Mysore Executive Engineer Kishore Chandra, Assistant Executive Engineer Shivalinga Prasad, MGP President S.D. Sahukar, Bhamy Shenoy and others were present.

Tourism Department gets land

for Film City at Himmavu in Nanjangud

Mysuru, June 9 - The Karnataka Industrial Area Development Board (KIADB) has handed over the land to the Tourism Department to set up a Film City at Himmavu village in Nanjangud Taluk. Himmavu is located around 20 kms from Mysuru, off National Highway 212.

The sprawling 110-acre land that played host to the 17th Bharat Scouts and Guides Jamboree in December 2016, where over 25,000 students participated, will soon have attractive structures, film sets and ultra-modern facilities for film-makers to shoot their upcoming movies. The Film City has been named "Sandalwood".

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Additional Deputy Commissioner T. Venkatesh said that the land has been handed over to the Tourism Department on a lease and the lease amount of Rs. 3.7 crore has to be paid by the Department. The Department has now got an approval from the State Cabinet to pay the lease amount in instalments.

It may be recalled here that the Film City was announced by Chief Minister Siddharamaiah in the last State Budget. The facility has been a long-standing demand of Sandalwood filmmakers and Mysuru was chosen as it has contributed immensely to the growth of Kannada film industry.

With Film City, the government hopes to bring in key players in film production, including top-ranking studios, to set up infrastructure for film shoots. It is also hoping to spur film tourism.

Sources said that the Film City will be developed on a Public-Private-Partnership (PPP) model and accordingly, the Tourism Dept. has prepared Detailed Project Report to rope in leading professional services firms to set up the Film City on its behalf.

Mysuru and its surroundings, including parts of Mandya district, have over 100 spots where film shooting takes place. Most scenic locations are within a radius of 15 to 20 km. The project has been languishing for many years for want of land. Though Bengaluru is a nerve centre of Kannada film world, now with increased traffic and growing population, shooting in Bengaluru has become a herculean task.

Film-makers say that Mysuru offers peaceful atmosphere that is ideal for film shoots. Many iconic structures and places, including Mysore Palace, Lalitha Mahal Palace Hotel, Chamundi Hill, Balamuri, Edamuri, KRS, Shivanasamudra, Kukkarahalli and Karanji Lakes and Manasagangothri campus, are favourite spots for Sandalwood Directors. Mysuru is also surrounded by tourist destinations including Kodagu, Ooty, Hassan and Chikamagaluru.

"No religion or caste classification before Vedic period," Bhavaikya Peetha Seer

Mysuru, June 9 (PM&NNN)- "The term Varna or class division is a vedic concept that did not exist earlier. There was no religion or caste classification before the Vedic period," said Sri Basavalinga Murthy Swamiji of Rammanahalli Basava Dhyana Mandira Bhavaikya Peetha.

He was delivering the keynote address at the Dalita Vachanakara Jayanti, jointly organised by the District Administration, Kannada and Culture Department and Dalita Vachanakara Jagriti Samiti at Maneyangala, in Kalamandira premises, here yesterday morning and said, "Before the vedic period there were no literates or illiterates. It is only later that the four divisions (Chaturvarna) came into prominence. Veda means knowledge but it did not become public. What gained prominence was class division which led to exploitation."

The discrimination started during this period and that is why it gave birth to Jainism to fight this discrimination. The 12th Century Saint Basavanna who was from a high caste understood this well and fought against caste system and for social reforms, he said.

According to the Seer, 770 Vachanakaras came to light during Basavanna's period. "I feel sad and uncomfortable to distinguish the Dalits from others and call them Dalit Vachanakaras," regretted the Seer.

Earlier, Zilla Panchayat President Nayeema Sultana, inaugurating the Dalita Vachanakara Jayanti said, "The Vachanakaras' life are an example to all of us. However, it is sad to see that though it is a government function, many people have not come."

Mylac Chairman H.A. Venkatesh, who also spoke, said, "The purpose of holding such function is to introduce the society to the ideals and thoughts of the Vachanakaras like Basavanna who strove hard for social justice," and added "their thoughts are still relevant in today's society."

Apart from Basavanna, in the 20th and 21st Century it was Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar and people like D. Devaraj Urs who gave the confidence to the Dalits to hold their head high and hence such celebrations acquire a meaning and purpose, he said.

District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, who did not participate had however sent his greetings. The others present included Kannada and Culture Department Assistant Director H. Channappa, litterateur Prof. K.S. WORD OF THE DAY

Penchant

Meaning: A strong and continued inclination.

Examples: "The irony is that acting young kept me out of trouble, giving me a sense of focus and purpose. I had a penchant for adventure." — Juliette Lewis, quoted in The Los Angeles Times, 15 Feb. 2015

"Among the many school-year rituals, none stands out in my mind more than picture day.... Ever eager to look my best, I had a penchant for trying something different with my hair—with less-than-stellar results." — Becky Kover, The Columbus (Ohio) Dispatch, 4 Aug. 2014

Origin: Like its synonyms leaning, propensity, and proclivity, penchant implies a strong instinct or liking for something. But these four words, while similar, are also distinguished by subtle differences. Leaning usually suggests a liking or attraction not strong enough to be decisive or uncontrollable ("a student with artistic leanings"), whereas propensity tends to imply a deeply ingrained and usually irresistible inclination ("a propensity to offer advice"). Proclivity frequently suggests a strong, natural proneness to something objectionable or evil ("a proclivity for violence"). Penchant, a descendant of Latin pendere (meaning "to weigh"), typically implies a strongly marked taste in the person ("a penchant for jazz music") or an irresistible attraction in the object ("a penchant for taking risks").

THE ODD WORD

Ochlophobia

Fear of crowds.

IDIOM OF THE DAY

Baker's dozen

Meaning: A group or set of thirteen. Example: The fellow gave me a baker's dozen of cookies. It made my children very happy. I always carry a baker's dozen chocolates in my purse.

Origin: The phrase's literary origin dates back to 1599 when John Cooke used it in his work called "TuQuoque". But the actual practice of English baker's adding an extra loaf of bread when they sold 12 breads dates back to much earlier. In 1154, when Henry II was in power, he had introduced a trade guide within which the statute managing bakers was called "The Worshipful Company of Bakers". Bakers were to price the bread in line with the price of wheat. The punishment for the weight falling short included fining, pillorying or flogging. The rule was about the weight of the bread and not the number and hence whenever bakers hold a dozen they would warily add an identical extra loaf, for good measure. This was done so that the total weight of the purchase would not be short. The additional bread became customary and would be called "vantage loaf" or "in-bread".
